

En souvenir de
In Memory of

Fernand Ratté

May 17, 1932 – March 24, 2022

A year ago, life taught us how fragile it can be. We never imagined that you would leave us so quickly in spite of your iron constitution and quick wit.

There are so many things that you had experienced and that we would have wanted you to share with us, and now these will forever be your secret gardens.

Fortunately, you have left behind a full and inspiring life which certainly paved many paths enabling us to overcome our grief and to pursue our own destinies.

We often think of you with love, and we thank you for everything.

Your wife Denise, your children François (Carole), Christian, Dominique (Pierre); your grandchildren Elisabeth (Louis, and their baby Jeanne) and Laurence (Maximilien).

We thank everyone who will join the family in thought,
on this Remembrance Day.
